Slap at Lamb.

Mr. Wadsworth's motion to send the bill to conference was agreed to with the single dissenting vote of Mr. DeArmond. The Speaker appointed as conferees Mr. Wadsworth, Mr. Scott and Mr. Lever (South Carolina).

Mr. Williams (Mississippi) interposed a vigorous protest at the last appointment, the chair having passed over Messrs. Lamb (Virginia) and Bowle (Alabama), both being opposed to the committee amendment, while Mr. Lever tavored it. Mr. Williams said it was "a slap in the face" of Mr. Lamb, and he protested. A vigorous conference was held at the desk between the Speaker, Mr. Williams and Mr. Wadsworth.

The Speaker withdrew the conferees temporarily, but later reappointed Messrs, Wadsworth and Scott and substituted Mr. Lamb for Mr. Lever, the latter having asked to be excused.

When the bill was returned to the Benate, Senator Proctor, chairman of the Committee on Agriculture, asked that the meat inspection amendment be printed, and that the bill if en the table.

With Powder Trust Explained by Robert S. Waddell.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WASHINGTON, D. C. June 19.—When Senator from Delaware, takes his seat h will find that his connection with the Powder Trust is fully set forth in circulars which have been addressed to members of both houses by Robert S. Waddell, president of the Buckeya Powder Company, of Peoria, Ill. Mr. Waddell also repeats a report from Washington of a Du Pont powder contribution of the Republican campaign fund. In one of his circulars Mr. Waddell sacks to prove the existence of a powder trust, which, he says, was formed in 1896. He says the price is named by an advisory commission, consisting of T. C. Du Pont, Colonel H. A. Du Pont, A. J. Moxham, president of the hazard Powder Company; A. O. Fay, president by the Mismi-American Powder Company; A. Lent, president of the Austin Powder Company, and F. W. Olin, president of the Equitable Powder Company.

Mr. Waddell made a series of charges in this letter, which were inserted in the Congressional Record by Senator Daniel, of Virginia. Among other charges was in a trust, apportioned the amount of powder each should sell. Mr. Waddell told how the King Powder Company had been brought to terms by the tfust, and gave the figures of the allotment of business in blasting powder.

He took direct issue with Senator Kittridge as to the safety of the Gatum dam. The agricultural appropriation bill containing the meat inspection provision was received from the House and the House substitute was ordered printed for the information of the Senate. The Senate ordered another conference on the naval bill.

Session of the House. WASHINGTON, D. C., June 19.—With practical unanimity the House to-day adopted the substitute amendment for the Beveridge amendment to the agricultural appropriation bill relating to meat inspection, the objectionable features of former amendments being eliminated and the amendment perfected to meet the wishes of the President. The bill was senf to conference, the conferees being Mr. Wadsworth, Mr. Scott, Kansas, and Mr. Lamb, of Virginia.

Bills under suspension of the rules were then passed Among the more important were the bills in relation to the immunity of witnesses in government cases; to establish the standard of value and to provide for a coinage system in the Philippine Islands; and granting the right to the city of St. Louis to erect a free bridge across the Mississippi River at that point.

Through the efforts of Mr. Champ Clark and Mr. Williams, the bill known as the subsidiary coinage failed of passage.
